Fun Facts ...

- In 1916, 4 years before the Constitution recognized her right to vote, Jeannette Rakin became the first woman elected to Congress.
- A baby can cost new parents 750 hours of sleep in the first year. That seems low actually.
- On a slow news day in 1930, BBC Radio simply reported "There is no news," and then they played piano music. Oh gosh, imagine if Fox News did that today.
- The last time the French government used the guillotine to execute a convicted criminal was in 1977.
- Canadians eat more donuts per capita than any other country.
- The necktie originated in Croatia.
- The state vegetable of Oklahoma is watermelon. Pull it together Oklahoma!
- General George Custer graduated last in his class at West Point in 1861.
